“As adults, we must ask more of our children than they know how to ask of themselves.” - Dr. Dawna Markova

Hal's Take: When you first read this, what went through your mind? What do you think she means by “more”? More chores, more respect, more schoolwork? Read the rest of her quote and see if you were on the same page: “What can we do to foster their open-hearted hopefulness, engage their need to collaborate, be an incentive to utilize their natural competency and compassion...show them ways they can connect, reach out, weave themselves into the web of relationships that is called community.” - Dawna Markova, PhD., researcher, author

Pushing our kids to do more is a phenomenon our generation is far too familiar with. Most of this nation’s children are overscheduled and sleep deprived. We don’t need to push our kids to do more. We need to inspire them to be more. There is a desire within them already to pitch in, to be kind, to feel a part of something larger. Help them find that and suddenly those chores, respect, and schoolwork won’t seem so important. What’s ironic is that they will likely all improve. - Hal Runkel, LMFT, Author of ScreamFree Parenting

UPLIFT: Thirty-eight of us are at Uplift at Harding University this week. Please pray for us and think of us as we learn and grow with other students from across the Southeast.

Timber Creek Camp July 8-12: Today is the last day to sign up for camp. Go to the Meadowbrook website, www.meadowbrook.org, click on the MYG section, and follow the instructions to register. Cost is $185 for campers and $135 for staff. A $100 deposit is due with your application. Be sure to put “camp” on the memo line of your check. You can drop it in the offering plate this morning.

Tuesday, June 26: No Interact! until Tuesday, July 17.

First Official Date Together: Sunday, July 1, we will go to lunch and a movie. We will be seeing the movie, Brave. All MYG’ers are welcome to come! Details available soon.
