Congregation News

Attention, Ladies: Just a friendly reminder that today's the day for the ladies' salad luncheon and ministry kick-off beginning at 12pm in the Family Center-fellowship hall. Ministry sign-up forms will be available. A nursery is provided.

New Roofs

Please continue to be cognizant of work areas while our roofs are being replaced. Again, thanks for your patience as we make these improvements.

Thanks

As we continue to enjoy the newly renovated bathrooms in the Family Center, we want to acknowledge that a portion of the renovations were funded by donations that were given in loving memory of John & Lynn Odom and Verna Dean Moon. We are truly thankful for these gifts that have provided such a needed improvement to our facilities.

Missing from the Library:

The New Testament in Antiquity by Burge, Cohick, and Green. If you have this book, please return it to the church library. If the library is not open, there is a return drop-box just outside door.

Philippians 4:6-7 Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

"The central struggle of parenthood is to let our hopes for our children outweigh our fears," said Ellen Goodman. It's normal to worry about our children. But when we allow our anxiety and fears to be the driving forces behind our behavior, we inevitably end up creating the very outcomes we were hoping to avoid. Instead of worrying about what might happen, spend some time thinking about what good things are happening to your child. If we can learn to control our overactive, worst-possible-case-scenario imaginations long enough to enjoy the present moment, we'll actually increase our chances of a bright, hope-filled future for our kids. Hal Runkel, Screamfree Parenting
